ZUR AUSGABE

Die vorliegende Ausgabe Sämtlicher Werke Franz Berwalds, die anlässlich der 100. Wiederkehr seines Todestages (3. April 1968) veranstaltet wird, soll ebenso kritisch-wissenschaftlichen wie praktischen Anforderungen genügen. Sie wird in 24 Bänden erscheinen:

- 1—9 Orchesterwerke
- 10—15 Kammermusikwerke
- 16—23 Vocalwerke
- 24 Supplement (möglicherweise 2 Bände)

Als Vorlagen dienen in erster Linie Berwalds eigenhändige Niederschriften.

Jeder Band enthält außer dem Notentext ein Vorwort mit Angaben über die betreffenden Werke, ihre Quellen etc. und einen Kritischen Bericht. Mehrere Werke innerhalb eines Bandes werden, soweit möglich, nach ihrer Entstehungszeit angeordnet. Im Notentext werden die Werke in der Gestalt wiedergegeben, die als die endgültige anzusehen ist. Frühere oder Alternativ-Fassungen werden in einem Anhang des betreffenden Bandes mitgeteilt. Skizzen und Fragmente finden im Supplementband Platz; sie sind dort nach Werkgruppen eingeteilt und innerhalb dieser nach Möglichkeit ebenfalls chronologisch geordnet. Nachweislich verschollene Kompositionen werden jeweils in den Vorworten der für sie in Frage kommenden Bände behandelt.

Die Werke Berwalds werden in der vorliegenden Ausgabe nicht durchgehend gezählt; jedoch wird immer dann — z. B. innerhalb einer bestimmten Gruppe — numeriert, wenn Zahlen in den Hauptquellen auftreten.

Für die Ausgabe gelten folgende allgemeine Editionsregeln:

Werktitel, die grundsätzlich in Kursivdruck wiedergegebenen Bezeichnungen der Instrumente und Stimmen, ferner Tempoangaben (in den Vorlagen unter Umständen abgekürzt und häufig voneinander abweichend geschrieben), dynamische Vorschriften und sonstige Worte innerhalb des Notentextes werden normalisiert; die Partituranordnung ist dem heutigen Gebrauch angepaßt. Die alten Schlüssel sind durch die heute üblichen ersetzt worden; bei Abänderung der originalen Schlüssel werden diese jedoch zu Beginn der ersten Akkolade im Vorsatz angegeben. Die originale Schreibweise transponierend notierter Instrumente ist beibehalten; Ausnahmen werden jeweils vermerkt. In den Hauptquellen auftretende Abbreviaturen, die mit der heutigen Notierungsweise übereinstimmen, werden der Vorlage gemäß wiedergegeben oder nach dem Ermessen des Bandbearbeiters ausgestochen. Triolen-, Sextolen- und ähnliche Ziffern werden nur bei den ersten Notengruppen gesetzt, sofern kein Mißverständnis möglich ist, und zwar ohne Rücksicht auf etwaige andere Notierung in der Vorlage. Kurze Vorschläge, die Berwald zum Teil, offenbar ohne unterschiedliche Bedeutung, auf verschiedene Weise notiert, sind in der vorliegenden Ausgabe durch \mathfrak{J} normalisiert. Bögen bei Verzierungsnoten werden ohne besondere typographische Kennzeichnung oder Bemerkung im Kritischen Bericht hinzugefügt.

Ergänzungen des Bandbearbeiters, die entweder über die Hauptquellen hinausgehen oder diesen widersprechen, sind in folgender Weise kenntlich gemacht: Buchstaben (einschließlich der Übersetzung von Vokaltexten) und Ziffern durch Kursivdruck; Verzierungen, Striche, Punkte, Fermaten, kleinere Pausenwerte (ausgenommen Ganztaktpausen), Akzidenzen, ferner (kursive) Ziffern zur Bezeichnung von Triolen, Sextolen usw. durch Kleinstich, Bögen, Crescendo- und Diminuendozeichen sowie Akzente durch Strichelung; alle übrigen Zusätze wie Schlüssel und Notenzeichen jeder Art durch eckige Klammern.

Berwalds Notierung der Akzidenzen ist zuweilen uneinheitlich. Besonders läßt sich das bei Oktavsprüngen oder Oktavversetzungen einer Tonfolge, bei Tonleiterbewegung und bei Wiederholung der Akzidenzen nach dem Taktstrich feststellen. Die vorliegende Ausgabe folgt dem jetzt allgemein gültigen Prinzip, nach dem Akzidenzen nur für eine Oktavlage und nur innerhalb eines Taktes gelten, wenn es sich nicht um einen Ton handelt, der durch Haltebogen über den Taktstrich mit einem gleichen Ton des vorhergehenden Taktes verbunden ist und somit liegen bleibt: Hier gilt das Vorzeichen so lange wie die Bindung.

Über Abweichungen vom originalen Notentext wird im Vorwort und im Kritischen Bericht des betreffenden Bandes genau berichtet. Im Vorwort werden auch besondere editionstechnische Probleme behandelt, die bei den Werken des betreffenden Bandes auftreten; ebenso auch etwaige sich als notwendig erweisende Abweichungen von den oben genannten allgemeinen Editionsprinzipien.

Der Kritische Bericht verzeichnet neben den Lesarten der verschiedenen Quellen auch alle Änderungen und Ergänzungen innerhalb des Notentextes, soweit diese nicht — entsprechend den oben wiedergegebenen allgemeinen Editionsprinzipien — ohne weiteres aus dem Text selbst zu erkennen sind. Durch den Notentext unmittelbar gestützte Änderungen per analogiam wie z. B. bei Sequenzen, parallel geführten Stimmen u. ä., ferner Korrekturen offensichtlicher Schreibfehler in den Hauptquellen werden stillschweigend vorgenommen.

EDITORIAL NOTE

This edition of Franz Berwald's Complete Works, published for the centenary of his death (April 3, 1968) is intended to satisfy both musicological and practical requirements, and will be issued in 24 volumes as follows:

- 1—9 Orchestral Works
- 10—15 Chamber Music
- 16—23 Vocal Music
- 24 Supplement (possibly 2 volumes)

The edition is based mainly on Berwald's autographs.

Apart from the musical text, each volume contains introductory notes on the works included, the sources, etc., and a critical commentary. In volumes containing more than one work, the contents are arranged as far as possible according to date of composition. The text gives what can be considered the final version of the work. Earlier versions or alternatives are to be found in an appendix to the volume concerned. Sketches and fragments are included in the supplementary volume, arranged in groups according to the type of work, and if possible in chronological order within each group. In the preface to the appropriate volume, reference is made to compositions no longer extant.

Continuous numbering of Berwald's compositions is not used in this edition; however, numbering of individual compositions—e. g. within a particular group—is given if it occurs in the primary sources.

The following general principles have been applied in the work of editing:

Standardization has been carried through in the music text with regard to the titles of works and the names of instruments and other parts, also in the question of tempo indications (abbreviations and spelling), dynamics and other words in the text. The score has been laid out according to present-day customs. Clefs are used according to modern practice; the original clefs are indicated on prefatory staves when there is a difference. As regards transposing instruments, the original notation is as a rule retained. Exceptions are dealt with explicitly. Those abbreviations in the music text occurring in the primary sources which agree with modern practice are given according to the original or written out in full according to the editor's choice. When no misunderstanding can arise, figures indicating triplets, sextolets etc. are given, only for the first groups of notes, without regard for the notation used in the primary source. Berwald writes short appoggiaturas in various ways, apparently without intending any difference in performance. In this edition, J has been used in all places. Slurs in embellishments have been added without special typographical differentiation or commentary.

Editorial additions to or deviations from the text of the primary sources are indicated according to the following rules: letters (including translations of the vocal text) and figures are printed in italics; ornaments, dashes, dots, accents, pauses (fermatas) and signs for rests shorter than a whole bar, accidentals together with figures (in italics) showing triplets, sextolets etc., are indicated by means of smaller type; slurs and ties, crescendo and diminuendo signs are indicated by means of broken lines; other additions such as clefs and all kinds of notes are given within [].

As to accidentals, Berwald's notation vacillates in certain situations. This is true particularly in connection with octave leaps or octave transpositions of a group of notes, in scalic progressions and also as regards the repetition of accidentals after bar lines. In this edition the principle is followed which is nowadays widely accepted, viz: accidentals apply only for a single octave and inside a single bar, except when notes are continued across bar lines by means of ties, in which case the accidentals are valid as long as the ties.

Alterations from the original text are accounted for in the preface and the critical commentary for the volume concerned. In the preface are mentioned among other things all the particular technical problems encountered in the editing of the compositions included in the volume, together with any deviations from the abovementioned general rules which have been found necessary in that particular volume. In the critical commentary are brought up variants in the sources together with those alterations introduced into the text, which are not sufficiently explained by the music text itself with reference to the editorial rules given above. Alterations by analogy justified directly by the musical text, e. g. in sequences, voices in parallel and the like, and correction of obvious slips of the pen in the primary sources have been made without comment.

VORWORT

Der vorliegende Band enthält Franz Berwalds Konzert für Klavier und Orchester in D-dur sowie das Fragment eines Konzerts für die gleiche Besetzung. Das vollständige Konzert liegt in autographen Partitur und abschriftlicher Solostimme vor. In der Partitur ist die Datierung ausgeradiert (s. u.); doch läßt sich die letzte Ziffer der Jahreszahl als eine 5 erkennen. In Mathilde Berwalds Verzeichnis der hinterlassenen Kompositionen ihres Gatten steht als Nr. 20 Piano concert. Partitur und danach, vom Sohne Hjalmar Berwald hinzugesetzt: *Stockholm Novemb 1855*¹.

Die Solostimme des Konzerts ist formal recht ungewöhnlich: Der Spieler ist das ganze Werk hindurch ohne Pause beschäftigt. Einen Kommentar dafür hat Berwald auf den Titelseiten der Partitur und der Solostimme gegeben, wo er bemerkt, daß das Werk auch ohne Orchesterbegleitung ausgeführt werden könne. (Weiteres s. Critical Commentary.) Dadurch wird auch die Tatsache erhellt, daß das Orchester in so anspruchsloser Weise behandelt ist. Die Solostimme ist als Beilage dieses Bandes gesondert mitgegeben.

Das Fragment besteht aus den Schlußtakten eines langsamen Satzes und einem vollständigen Finalsatz; es liegt vor in autographen Partitur (vgl. Anhang I) und abschriftlicher Solostimme. Inhaltlich ist das Fragment mit dem vollständigen Konzert verwandt: Die vier Schlußtakte in der Partitur des langsamen Satzes stimmen mit den entsprechenden Takten des Konzerts fast völlig überein, und die 22 Takte der Solostimme aus demselben Satz (vgl. Anhang II) sind so gut wie identisch mit T. 10 ff. bzw. 57 ff. im langsamen Satz des Konzerts. Auch die beiden Finalsätze zeigen eine Anzahl motivischer Ähnlichkeiten. In Mathilde Berwalds Verzeichnis steht das Fragment unter Nr. 43 als Delar af en Piano-concert („Teile eines . . .“), aber ohne Datierung².

In der Partitur des vollständigen Werkes ist das Konzert mit № 1 bezeichnet. Franz Berwalds Enkelin, die Pianistin Astrid Berwald, wies indessen mündlich darauf hin, daß das Fragment vor dem Konzert geschrieben sei und daß der Schlußsatz des Fragments die ursprüngliche Fassung des dritten Satzes des Konzerts darstelle³.

Das Fragment besteht aus einer Anzahl zusammengehefteter Blätter: 25 für die Partitur und 6 für die Solostimme (s. Critical Commentary). In der Partitur des Konzerts beginnt der Finalsatz auf S. 90 und im Fragment auf S. 89. Somit dürften die nicht mehr vorhandenen Teile des Fragments den fast gleichen Umfang wie die entsprechenden Partien des Konzerts gehabt haben. Der im Fragment noch erhaltene Teil des langsamen Satzes zeigt, wie oben gesagt, augenfällige Ähnlichkeiten mit Teilen des langsamen Satzes im vollständigen Konzert. Dieser Umstand sowie die Tatsache, daß Berwald anscheinend nur in Ausnahmefällen Material aufgehoben hat, welches zu einer ausgeführten Komposition verwendet worden war, lassen vermuten, daß die dem Fragment vorausgehenden Teile mehr oder weniger mit denjenigen des Konzerts übereinstimmten. Vorgenommene Untersuchungen des Papiers und der Handschrift stützen die Auffassung, daß das Fragment dem Konzert zeitlich voranging, und zeigen ferner, daß zwischen beiden höchstens ein paar Jahre liegen können.

Nach einer mündlichen Äußerung Astrid Berwalds ist das Klavierkonzert für Berwalds Klavierschülerin Hilda Thegerström geschrieben⁴. Es gibt freilich kein Zeugnis darüber, ob diese das Werk bei irgendeiner Gelegenheit zu Gehör gebracht hat.

1872, vier Jahre nach Berwalds Tod, wurde das Konzert beim jährlichen Wettbewerb der Musikaliska konstföreningar in Stockholm eingereicht⁵. Da die Werke — unter Beifügung eines versiegelten Namenszettels — anonym vorgelegt werden mußten, ist der Name des Komponisten und das Datum ausgeradiert worden. Weiter sollten die Werke mit einem Motto versehen sein; in diesem Fall wurde Animus et mens gewählt. Das Motto ist von Hjalmar Berwalds Hand geschrieben; man kann daher wohl annehmen, daß dieser das Konzert auch eingereicht hat⁶.

Die Jury, welche die eingesandten Beiträge prüfen sollte, bestand aus Julius Rietz, Niels W. Gade und Albert Rubenson⁷. Die beiden Erstgenannten gaben ihre Beurteilungen ab, während August Söderman die Stelle Rubensons vertrat. In einem Brief vom 14. Juli 1873 schreibt Rietz über das Konzert: „Es ist frisch und lebendig gedacht und ausgeführt, ganz interessant in den Motiven und dabei sehr dankbar für den Spieler. Zu bedauern bleibt freilich, daß die Cantilene etwas vernachlässigt ist und namentlich in den beiden schnellen Sätzen das Figuren- und Passagework zu sehr dominirt. In formeller Beziehung gibt das Werk überhaupt zu manchen Bedenken Veranlassung.“ Rietz meint weiter, daß sich das Orchester allzu passiv verhalte und schließt mit den Worten: „Ohne allen Zweifel ist sie aber würdig veröffentlicht zu werden.“

Gade sagt über das Klavierkonzert im Zusammenhang mit zwei anderen eingereichten Werken, es seien „wohlgeordnete und mit Tüchtigkeit ausgeführte Musikstücke“ und schreibt, auch das Klavierkonzert „deutet auf mehr als gewöhnliche Entwicklung und Reife und ist gleichzeitig gut instrumentiert“. Söderman schreibt ganz kurz: „. . . nach Ansicht des Unterzeichneten ist keines der Werke geeignet, von der Musikaliska konstföreningar zum Druck befördert zu werden“.

Im Herbst 1873 wurde die Angelegenheit in der Musikaliska konstföreningar behandelt, und im Protokoll vom 20. August steht, daß nach Meinung der Direktion nur das Klavierkonzert von der Vereinigung angekauft werden solle. „Aber, da sich beim Öffnen der Namenszettel herausstellte, daß die Arbeit von dem verstorbenen Franz Berwald herrührte, und nach Auslegung des § 6 der Statuten seitens der Direktion die Arbeiten verstorbener Tonsetzer nicht in der Weise, wie es hier geschehen, der Vereinigung eingereicht werden können, sah sich die Direktion nicht imstande, die Arbeit anzukaufen.“

So unterblieb die Herausgabe des Konzerts, und das Werk wurde erst im Jahre 1904 öffentlich aufgeführt, als Astrid Berwald es in einem Schülerkonzert in Stockholm spielte. Das Orchester wurde bei dieser Gelegenheit durch ein zweites Klavier ersetzt⁸. Die erste Aufführung mit Orchester fand vier Jahre später durch dieselbe Solistin unter Leitung von Tor Aulin statt⁹.

EDITIONSTECHNISCHE BEMERKUNGEN

1. Artikulation

In Berwalds Autographen kommen an Parallelstellen oft gewisse Unregelmäßigkeiten vor, hauptsächlich bezüglich der Artikulation. Ob Berwald damit bewußt Unterschiede beabsichtigt hat, oder ob es sich um unvollständige Notierungen handelt, ist sehr schwer zu entscheiden. Die Herausgeberin dieses Bandes ist deshalb mit Artikulationszutaten sehr vorsichtig gewesen.

Artikulationsbogen sind in Berwalds Autographen gewöhnlich verhältnismäßig vollständig gezogen, wenn auch nicht immer ganz konsequent. Besonders schwierig kann es sein, das Ende eines Bogens festzustellen; Berwald neigt bisweilen dazu, Bogen zu weit nach rechts zu ziehen. In vorliegender Ausgabe ist meistens Vereinheitlichung nach unzweifelhaften Parallelstellen vorgenommen worden. Ein Kommentar wird im Critical Commentary nur in Zweifelsfällen gegeben.

In der Solostimme kann man sich einen Legatobogen, der über bzw. unter einem Abschnitt mit mehrstimmigem Notenbild steht, oft für mehrere oder alle Stimmen dieses Abschnitts geltend denken (auch wenn an solchen Stellen ein eigentliches Legatospiel technisch unausführbar ist). In der Regel hat die Herausgeberin Bogen für die übrigen Stimmen des Klavierparts nicht ergänzt. Doch hat sie in Ausnahmefällen einen Ergänzungsbogen hinzugesetzt, wenn dies durch Parallelstellen in den Autographen gestützt wird.

Bogen über Triolen, Sextolen usw. finden sich in den Quellen häufig, meist mit einer Triolen- (Sextolen- usw.) Ziffer am Bogen. Wenn dergleichen Bogen Artikulationsbogen bedeuten können, wurden sie ohne Kommentar von der Ziffer getrennt.

An Stellen, wo zwei Instrumente auf gemeinsamem System notiert sind und die obere Stimme Überbindungen zwischen Tönen gleicher Tonhöhe aufweist, soll für die untere allem Anschein nach oft das Entsprechende gelten, obwohl hier die Bogen fehlen. In solchen Fällen sind in dieser Ausgabe in der unteren Stimme ohne typographische Kennzeichnung Bogen hinzugefügt.

⁹ Das Konzert, das Richard Andersson veranstaltete, wurde am 27. April 1908 im großen Saal der KMA gegeben. Vgl. Svensk musiktidning, Stockholm 1908, Nr. 9, S. 68.

Wo ein Bogen die doppelte Funktion von Halte- und Artikulationsbogen hat, sind im vorliegenden Band gestrichelte Bogen zwischen Noten gleicher Tonhöhe hinzugesetzt.

2. Sonstiges

Im Klavierpart dieses Bandes hat Berwald an vielen (mehrstimmigen) Stellen unterlassen, nach dem „Aufhören“ einer Stimme in einem Takt die zur Taktfüllung erforderliche(n) Pause(n) zu notieren. Solche fehlenden Pausen sind von der Herausgeberin nicht ergänzt worden, u. a. deswegen nicht, weil es manchmal schwer zu entscheiden ist, ob nach Berwalds Vorstellung die „aufhörende“ Stimme in eine andere übergehen sollte oder nicht.

Ein grundsätzliches Problem in Berwalds Klaviersatz ist die häufig vorkommende „stimmige“ Notation. Da diese Notierungsweise nicht überall konsequent erscheint und außerdem das Notenbild bisweilen unnötig kompliziert, hat die Herausgeberin in Fällen, in denen polyphone Stimmführung nicht gegeben zu sein scheint, getrennte einfache Behalsung abgeändert. Dieses Verfahren wird im Critical Commentary nicht erwähnt.

Die Notierung der Paukenstimme ist folgendermaßen normalisiert:

Timpani in Re-La/D-A

Original:

BwGA:

Um ein leichter lesbares Notenbild zu erhalten, ist an einzelnen Stellen entgegen dem Quellentext Schlüsselwechsel vorgenommen worden. Aus gleichem Grunde, und falls keine Mißdeutung der Quellen erfolgen kann, sind einige Balken geändert. Keine dieser Abänderungen wird im Critical Commentary vermerkt.

Die Pedal-Bezeichnungen hat Berwald zwischen die Systeme der Solostimme geschrieben; sie sind in dieser Ausgabe unter das zweite System gesetzt worden. Berwalds Pedalisierung ist ohne Ergänzungen beibehalten worden, auch wenn es — wenigstens auf den heutigen Instrumenten — notwendig erscheint, das Pedal häufiger als angegeben zu wechseln.

Die Herausgeberin schuldet Fräulein Astrid Berwald, Stockholm, für das erwiesene freundliche Entgegenkommen wärmsten Dank.

PREFACE

The present volume contains Franz Berwald's concerto for piano and orchestra in D Major, together with a fragment of a concerto for the same instruments. The complete concerto has been preserved in an autograph score and a copy of the solo part. The date has been erased in the score (see below), although a 5 can be discerned as the final figure. No. 20 in Mathilde Berwald's catalogue of the works left by her husband is Piano concert. Partitur followed by the words Stockholm Novemb 1855 added by their son, Hjalmar Berwald.¹

The solo part has an unusual form, the pianist playing throughout the work without a break. Berwald commented on this on the title page of both the score and the solo part, stating that the work can also be performed without orchestral accompaniment (see also Critical Commentary). This throws light on the fact that the orchestral part is so unpretentious. The solo part is given separately in a supplement to this volume.

The fragment comprises only the concluding bars of a slow movement and a complete final movement; it is preserved in an autograph score (cf. Appendix I) and a copy of the solo part. The fragment has points of contact with the complete concerto; the last four bars in the score of the slow movement are virtually identical with the corresponding bars of the concerto and the 22 bars in the solo part of the same movement (cf. Appendix II) are practically identical with the bars 10 ff. and 57 ff. respectively in the slow movement of the concerto. Also both the final movements display a number of similarities of motive. The fragment is entered in Mathilde Berwald's catalogue under no. 43 as Delar af en Pianoconcert ("Parts of a . . ."), but is undated.²

In the score of the complete work, the concerto is given as № 1. However, Franz Berwald's niece, the pianist Astrid Berwald, has stated orally that the fragment was written earlier than the concerto and that its final movement was an original version of the third movement of the concerto.³

The fragment comprises the last 25 (score) and 6 (solo part) of a number of sheets stitched together (see Critical Commentary). In the concerto's score the last movement begins on page 90, in that of the fragment on page 89. The parts of the fragment which were removed would thus appear to be of almost the same extent as corresponding parts of the concerto. As mentioned above, the remaining part of the slow movement in the fragment shows considerable similarities to parts of the slow movement of the complete concerto. This, together with the fact that Berwald seems to have saved material used in a completed composition only in exceptional cases, makes it reasonable to assume that the parts preceding the fragment were more or less identical to corresponding parts of the concerto. Paper and handwriting studies give further support to the view that the fragment was written before the concerto and show in addition that the time difference was probably about a year at most.

According to Astrid Berwald the piano concerto was written for the composer's piano student Hilda Thegerström.⁴ There is no evidence, however, that she ever performed the work.

In 1872, four years after Berwald's death, the concerto was entered in the annual competition of Musikaliska konstföreningen in Stockholm.⁵ As the entries had to be anonymous, accompanied by a sealed slip containing the composer's name, Berwald's signature and the date were erased. The works also had to be provided with a motto; in this case Animus et mens. As the motto is in Hjalmar Berwald's handwriting, there is strong reason to suppose that he was also responsible for submitting the concerto.⁶

The committee that was to examine the entries consisted of Julius Rietz, Niels W. Gade and Albert Rubenson.⁷ The first two expressed opinions on the work, while August Söderman took over Rubenson's task. In a letter dated 14th July 1873 Rietz writes of the concerto that "Es ist frisch und lebendig gedacht und ausgeführt, ganz interessant in den Motiven und dabei sehr dankbar für den Spieler. Zu bedauern bleibt freilich, daß die Cantilene etwas vernachlässigt ist und namentlich in den beiden schnellen Sätzen das Figuren- und Passagewerk zu sehr dominiert. In formeller Beziehung gibt das Werk überhaupt zu manchen Bedenken Veranlassung." Rietz goes on to say that the orchestra is much too passive, and he concludes, "Ohne allen Zweifel ist sie aber würdig veröffentlicht zu werden."

Gade says of the piano concerto and the other two entries that they are "well-arranged and skilfully executed pieces of music" and writes that the piano concerto too, "indicates more than the customary development and maturity and in addition, is well instrumented." Söderman writes quite briefly, ". . . the undersigned considers none of them to be suitable for publication by Musikaliska konstföreningen."

The matter was dealt with by Musikaliska konstföreningen in the autumn of 1873 and its minutes of 20th August state that in the opinion of the Board, only the piano concerto should be purchased. "But as on opening the sealed slip it was found that the work was composed by the late Franz Berwald and, according to the Board's interpretation of § 6 of the regulations, the works of deceased composers cannot be submitted to the Society in the form used in the present case, the Board considered itself unable to purchase the work."

Thus the concerto was not published and did not reach the public until 1904 when it was performed for the first time by Astrid Berwald at a students' concert in Stockholm. A transcri-

⁴ Hilda Aurora Thegerström (1838–1907) was a student of Berwald's and later studied under A. F. Marmontel in Paris and Liszt in Weimar. Berwald devoted his piano quintet in C Minor to her.

⁶ Astrid Berwald too, states that it was Hjalmar Berwald that submitted the work to Musikaliska konstföreningen.

⁷ With regard to the committee and its work as well as the opinions quoted below, see the minutes of Musikaliska konstföreningen, MAB: 20th April 1873 plus appendices.

tion of the orchestral part was played on the piano.⁸ The first performance with an orchestra took place four years later with the same soloist and Tor Aulin conducting.⁹

EDITORIAL COMMENTS

1. Articulation

In Berwald's autographs, there are often certain irregularities in parallel passages, mainly concerning the articulation. Whether Berwald intended a conscious differentiation between the parallel passages, or whether these are cases of imperfect notation, can be very difficult to decide. The editor of the present volume has therefore been very reticent in adding to the articulation.

Slurs are usually shown relatively completely in Berwald's autographs, but are not always fully consistent. It can be particularly difficult to decide where a slur finishes; Berwald tends occasionally to continue slurs too far to the right. In the present edition, such slurs have been adapted to correspond with unequivocal parallel passages. Such adjustments are taken up in the Critical Commentary only in dubious cases.

In the piano part, legato slurs over or under a section written in voices often refer to several or all voices in the section (even where a genuine legato would be technically impossible). As a rule, the editor has not added slurs in the remaining voices of the piano part. However, in exceptional cases the editor has added such extra slurs if they can be justified by parallel passages in the autographs.

Slurs over triplets, sextuplets etc., are found in the sources in a number of places, with a triplet (or sextuplet etc.) number by the slur. When such slurs are to be considered as articulation slurs, they are separated from the number without comment.

Where two instruments sharing a stave have similar parts, i.e. with notes of the same pitch in both parts and the upper part is connected by ties, it would in many cases appear that ties should be added in the lower part to correspond. In such instances ties have been added to the lower part in the present edition, without typographical differentiation.

In cases where slurs have the double function of ties and articulation marks, broken lines have been added between notes of the same pitch.

2. Miscellaneous

The piano part in this volume contains many places where Berwald has refrained from completing the bar, after a voice in a polyphonic structure has been "concluded", with the necessary rest or rests. Such missing rests have not been added by the editor, one reason being that it can occasionally be difficult to decide whether Berwald has regarded the "concluding" voice as really concluding or as continuing in another voice.

A fundamental problem as regards Berwald's piano writing is his frequent use of "part-writing" notation. As this way of writing does not always appear consistent, and as it also often gives the part an unnecessarily complicated appearance, the editor has altered separate stems to single stems in cases where polyphonic part-writing has not seemed called for. This procedure is not mentioned in the Critical Commentary.

The timpani part has been normalized in the following way:

Timpani in Re-La/D-A

Original notation:

BwGA:

To improve the legibility of the music text, the clef has been changed as against the sources in some places. For the same reason, where no risk of misunderstanding the sources exists, beams have occasionally been altered. Neither of these procedures is mentioned in the Critical Commentary.

The pedal marks have been placed by Berwald between the staves in the piano part, but have in this edition been placed under the lower stave. Berwald's pedal marks have been retained without additions, even in cases where—at least on modern instruments—it would appear necessary to change more often than indicated.

The editor would like to extend her warmest appreciation to Miss Astrid Berwald, Stockholm, for her great kindness.
